HOMES

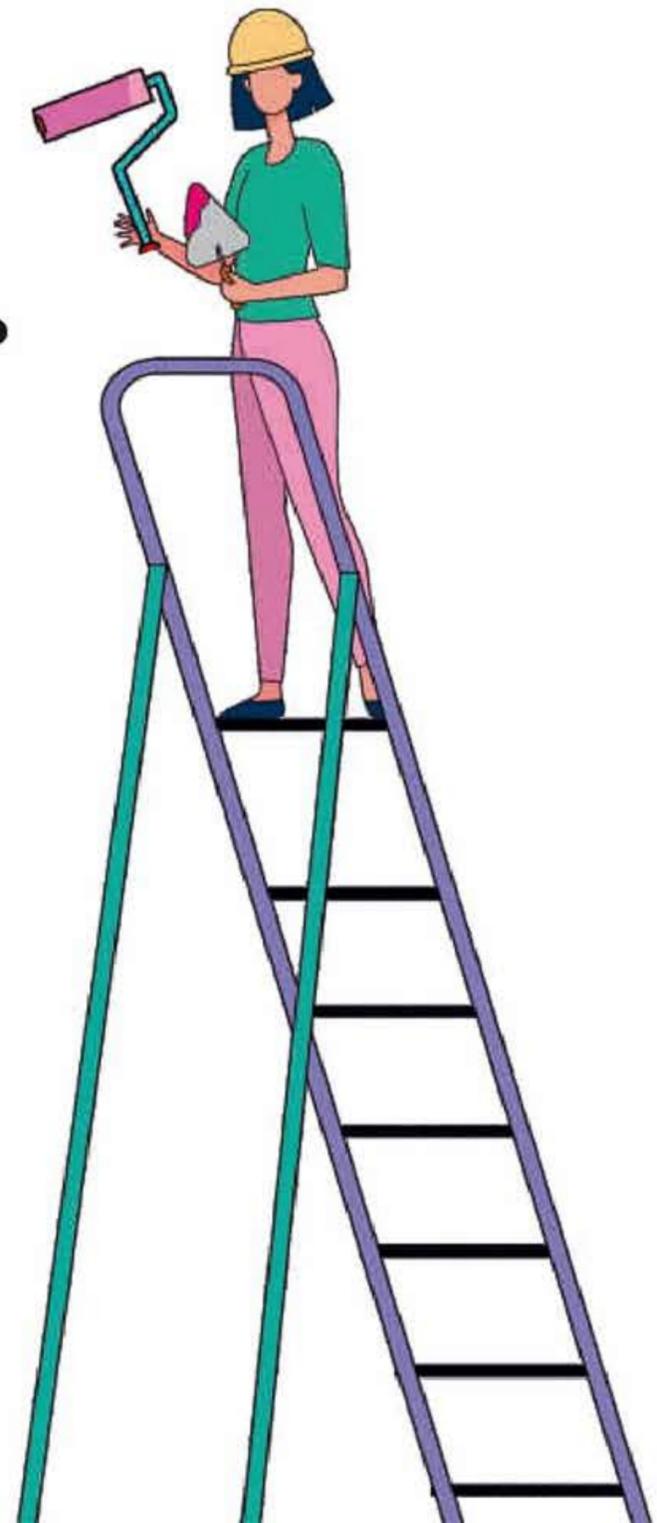

Not just an edifice. but an essence of women empowerment.

Pink - Thiruvananthapuram's first ever exclusive 2 & 3 BHK premium apartment, stands tall as a monument of women empowerment and their creative contributions in almost every strategic area of its construction. A class apart in living space, ushering in superior amenities including open space with greenery, outdoor sports zone and area for private farm in each apartment, Pink is conceived in 12 floors being built in 88 cents of land, allowing easy access to airport, railway station, malls, IT Park, prominent hospitals and other everyday facilities.

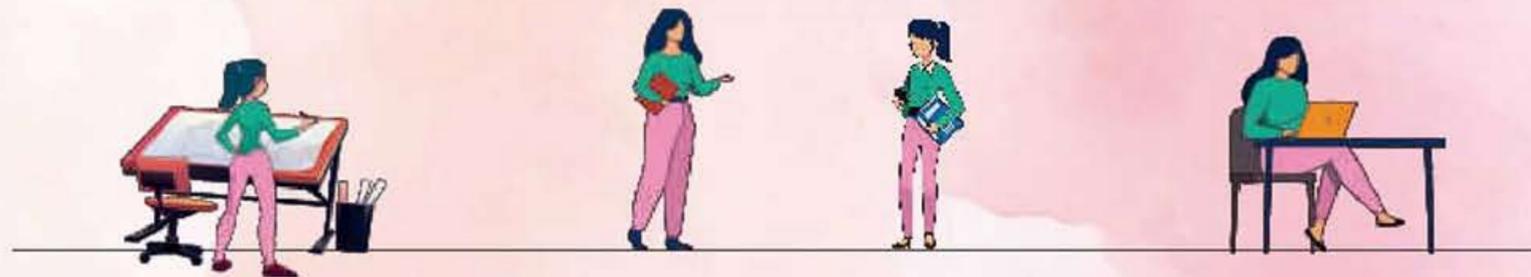

Being conceived with women participation in every vital area, including security, The Pink imbues the essence of women empowerment.

INTRODUCING

Pink

BY SREE DHANYA HOMES

Conception of a unique innovation.

Conceived to last and extend the finest living space experience, PINK stays as a unique innovation of its class with 90% women participation for its realisation. While an environment adequate enough for a first-class living experience has been envisioned, the address and amenities outwit any other project in Thiruvananthapuram.

Where bangles and anklets break into laughter.

A big salute to women and their abilities, PINK, from conception to completion, will have women presence across customer care, sales, engineering, site supervision, interior designing, security and more. The first project in India which signifies women and their calibre, PINK reverberates the laughter of bangles and anklets in pleasant tones.

Gated community with outdoor game facilities.

PINK by design is a safe haven where every resident gets to experience exclusive access to everything that would elevate them to a premium living experience. 88 cents of enclosed community and its facilities would present outdoor game infrastructure for cricket, badminton, tennis, amphitheatre, park for the elderly and children's play area.

A dream any woman would treasure.

Terrace vegetation

Pink in 12 floors with open terrace in each apartment gives the occupants the feeling of having an independent home environment, an exclusivity of personal freedom. It presents the scope and space for owning a private farm in each apartment as well. As for women who cherish freedom and security, Pink is a proud possession indeed. Enjoy the luxury of independence.

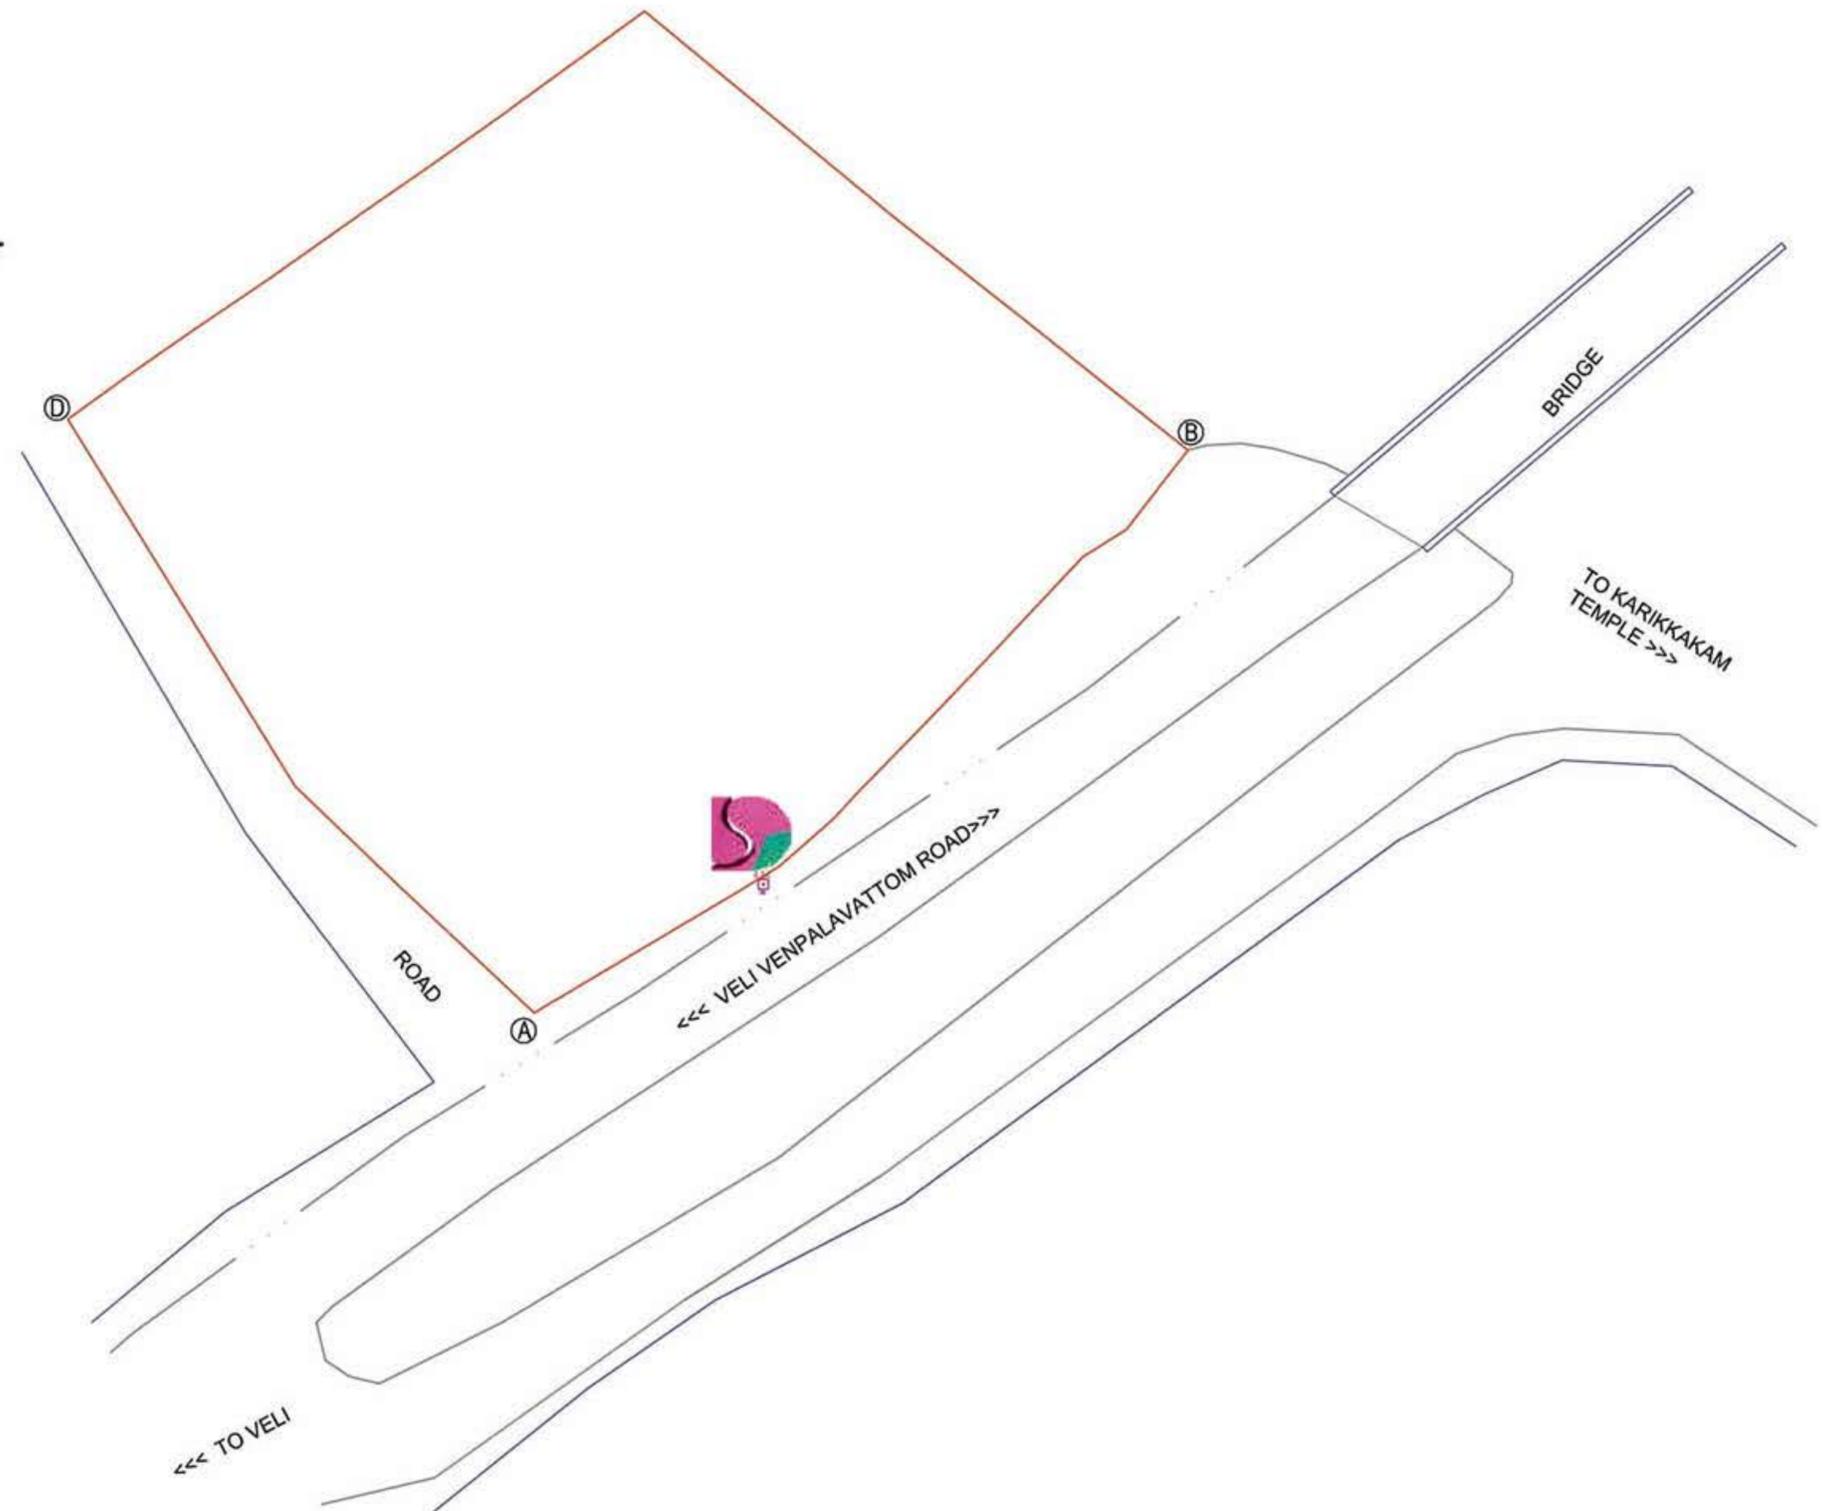

A stone's throw away from city limits.

Close to the city and yet away from its din, PINK is being built at Venpalavattom. Just a few minutes drive accords access to the city centre, international airport, railway station, prominent hospitals, malls, IT Park and business establishments for everyday purchases.
